REPORT NO.

1. The Metropolitan Committee of the Communist Party of Brazil (PCB) has decided to appoint Henrique Joao Cordeiro director for the printing shop of the Tribuna Popular, Communist newspaper in Rio de Janeiro.
2. Cordeiro will replace Iguatemi Ramos da Silva in this new position. Ramos da Silva, who was a PCB alderman and in whose name the Metropolitan Committee's Artes Graficas is registered, has recently been the object of constant police attention.
3. Although Cordeiro is not so well known to the police as Ramos da Silva, he has nevertheless taken an active part in Party affairs, particularly in connection with its publications. He has been director of the Revista Continental, founder of the Edicoes Horizonte Ltda. and the Editorial Vitoria, and the first manager of A Classe Operaria. He was one of those called upon in the liquidation of the Distribuidora Anteu when the latter organization failed to meet its payments.
4. Mauricio Grabois, top echelon Brazilian Communist, who has been one of the owners of Revista Continental, A Classe Operaria, and Distribuidora Anteu, has always favored Cordeiro in his enterprises because of the high quality of Cordeiro's work and his tireless energy.
